

Can adults with dyslexia still learn English?

Yes! It's never too late: where there's a will, there's a way. ELT well offers bespoke language courses in Lancaster, where students can study 1:1 or in small groups with tutors trained in inclusive teaching techniques. In addition, they can live with English-speaking host families, and take part in activities they enjoy, so that they naturally acquire English, without even noticing.