ELT well has helped to set up a new IATEFL SIG
(special interest group):

Inclusive Practices and SEN

List of SIGs

Take a look at the Special Interest Group websites. For more information, contact the Group Coordinators listed below. Membership price is £18.00 for individual members and £33.00 for institutional members.

Many of the SIGs produce publications specific to that area of interest in ELT. Check out our online shop for more information and to purchase. If you are after a specific back copy of a SIG newsletter please contact the IATEFL Head Office (generalenquiries@iatefl.org). Please note that there is a charge per issue.

DysTEFL 2

The materials have been updated and extended and will be celebrated - and taught - at a conference and training week in Lodz in June

And my colleague
Judit Kormos has a new book coming out
soon:
The Second Language Learning Processes of Students with Specific Learning Difficulties
